

PHILOSOPHY (PHL)

---

PHL260 Introduction to Philosophy (3 course hours)

An introduction to the discipline of philosophy through surveying philosophical problems, issues and ideas (together with their representative proponents) which have formed lasting concerns throughout human history.

Pre-requisites: ENG102 OR ACT 27 OR SAT 610

Course offered: SEM

PHL267 Comparative Religions (3 course hours)

A comparative study of the major world religions with an effort to view them as they offer interpretation to key religious ideas such as God, sin, immorality, atonement, and eschatology.

Course offered: DEM