

RISE PERSON-CENTERED PLANNING (RPC)

RPC014 Career Exploration and Self Discovery (2 course hours)

Students in this course will learn about their career interests and gain awareness of self. In this course, students will learn about different careers and the training and skills in order to succeed in those careers. Students will participate in on-campus job shadowing experiences related to their career interests and choose a Subject Area Concentration.

Co-requisites: RPS014

Course offered: FA

RPC042 Transition to Independence (2 course hours)

This course will equip students to transition into independence after graduation. Students will think critically and develop a transition plan focusing on employment goals and housing opportunities.

REGISTRATION: Students must successfully pass RPC014 and RPS034 to take this course.

Pre-requisites: RPC014 and RPS034

Course offered: SP

RPC051 Mastering Independent Living I:Independent Living Basics (2 course hours)

This course is designed to re-introduce and expand students' knowledge about topics that were covered in RISE Independent Living and Personal Finance courses. Specific emphasis is on setting and managing a budget and spending money wisely. The course also focuses on Biblical principles of managing money. Students will be encouraged to think about his/her own personal situation while completing assignments.

REGISTRATION: This course is designed for graduates of the RISE Certificate program; students must successfully pass RPC042 to take this course.

Pre-requisites: RPC042

Course offered: FA

RPC052 Mastering Independent Living II:Practicums (2 course hours)

In this course, students will be guided through a series of hand-on practicums to better prepare for healthful living in an apartment in the community. Specific practicums include meal planning, grocery shopping, setting up an exercise/fitness regimen and the impact of good health in other aspects of independent living (insurance costs, doctor appointments, discretionary time, etc.). The goal is to give students practical experience so that s/he can determine his/her preparedness for healthy, independent living outside of a parent/guardian home.

REGISTRATION: This course is designed for graduates of the RISE Certificate program; students must successfully pass RPC051 to take this course.

Pre-requisites: RPC051

Course offered: SP