

WORSHIP ARTS DEPARTMENT

Faculty

Department Chair: Mark Torgerson

Warren Anderson, Timothy May, Bethany Timmons

Mission

Humanity was created to worship the Triune, Holy God. The Worship Arts major is an interdisciplinary program grounded in music, theology, and communication studies. Worship Arts majors are equipped to lead and train God's people in fulfilling our primary purpose for existence.

Goals

Worship Arts programs at Judson University:

- Prepare students to experience worship event production in diverse settings
- Enable students to demonstrate proficiency in communication arts, speech and writing, use of media and programming for the performing arts in worship
- Prepare students to integrate basic Christian doctrine, the history and theology of worship and administration in church and parachurch settings
- Encourage students to develop a sensitivity to the particular needs of their congregations
- Prepare students to develop an understanding and appreciation for the interrelationship of music, drama, media in supporting the worship experience
